THE CROSS AND THE BEATITUDES-WEEK FOURTH
Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven (Mt 5:3), now at the end of life Jesus now practices that Spirit when he speaks his fourth word from the cross, “My God , my God, why have you forsaken me” (Mt.27:46)
 Today our world can be classed as an acquisitive society, its primary concern is to acquire, to own, to possess. It judges worth not by righteousness but in terms of possessions. The world finds security in wealth, but Pope Francis warns, “Once we think we are rich, we can become so self-satisfied that we leave no room for God’s word, or for the love of our brothers and sisters, or for the enjoyment of the most important things in life.”
 Blessed are those not possessed by their own possessions; blessed are they whether or not they are materially poor but are poor in their inmost spirit. Jesus not only preached poverty of spirit but he lived it. He lived it in order to conquer pride, which impedes a person from being humble or admitting a mistake and asking for forgiveness.
 Jesus “invites us to live a plain and austere life” and “to share in the life of those most in need”. During his life Jesus was poor in many senses: He was economically poor. Mary the mother of Jesus was from the poorer classes who could only afford to offer doves in the Temple and his birthplace in a deserted shepherd’s cave. He was poor in his public life “Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.” (Mt 8:20), and he was buried in a stranger’s grave. He became poor for our sake. When his friends abandoned him and when he wasn’t accepted by his own people he was socially poor.
 Sometimes when we at our lowest, we believe we have been abandoned by everyone, even God. But he never abandons us. Jesus teaches us when he speaks his fourth word from the cross “My God , my God, why have you forsaken me” (Mt 27:46), that being poor in spirit is an occasion of grace. Being poor in spirit is to be aware of our frailty, to accept our mistakes and be able to ask forgiveness We are given the right to be poor in spirit, because this is the way of the kingdom of God.

TRÓCAIRE LENTEN APPEAL– It is a difficult time for all at present but if we could set aside a little time to pray for the work of Trocaire helping mothers in Kenya to grow crops. THEY NEED RAIN– If we all pray together the power of prayer can help.
A Prayer For Rain– God of life, all good gifts come from you: the breath of life that creates us, the fellow creatures that accompany us, the waters that renew and refresh us. Send us rain to heal the earth and quench the thirsty land. Let faith be born from our doubts, hope from our despair, compassion from our troubles. We look to you in our time of need. Give to the earth the water of life, water to bring forth food for your creatures. AMEN
