PENTECOST SUNDAY 31st MAY 2020

ACTS OF THE APOSTLES 2:1-11
“When Pentecost day came round, they had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech.”

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY!

Many people have experienced a loss of income during the pandemic. the income of the priests of the parish and the diocese has also been very affected. Priests income has been reduced by 25%. The 1st Collection at mass and the Dues Collections are the source of the priests’ income. As the churches have been closed for a period of time, there has been no 1st Collection and no opportunity to organise the Easter Dues Collection.

So, we want to take this opportunity to THANK those who, so far, have made such great efforts to get a contribution towards the 1st Collection and the Easter Dues Collection to us. It wasn’t easy to do this, so we appreciate this very much. We are continuing to accept donations to Easter Dues. We also want to THANK all those who have through cards and phone calls contacted us to ask how we are and to pass on good wishes.

Fr. John, Fr. Paddy & Fr. John

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL– Please remember to support our local St. Vincent de Paul as their monthly collection is not able to take place at present. Donations can be dropped into the Parish Office.

CORONAVIRUS, CHURCH AND YOU
 DCU’s Mater Dei Centre for Catholic Education (Director, Dr. Gareth Byrne) has made an important survey available. The Covid-19 pandemic has obviously had a profound effect on Church. As we pass the most severe period of lockdown, it seems a good time to assess how clergy and churchgoers have responded to the experience, and what they think the future might hold. The views of priests, religious and lay people are all welcome. To have your say go to: <https://www.dcu.ie/materdei-centre-for-catholic-education/news/2020/May/Coronavirus-Church-You-Survey.shtml>

PEACE BE WITH YOU
 The word for peace in the Gospel today, Shalom, is more than a wish for a good evening. It is a deeper peace, a peace of mind, body and spirit. A peace that comes from a deep spiritual relationship with Christ. It is a peace that says, no matter what we face, we can remain rooted in something deeper. Over the past number months our lives have changed dramatically.
 At the beginning of 2020 one could scarcely imagine the historical events that were about to unfold across the world. A staggering death toll, half of the globe on lock down, airlines grounded, businesses closed, major sporting events cancelled. Many of us in that first week of social isolation were in shock, which turned to anxiety and fear. We experienced a collective grief as a human race as this new reality unfolded.
 One can imagine that same fear and disbelief that Jesus’ followers endured during those days in Jerusalem following the crucifixion, their lives utterly changed forever. Yet our faith shows us that the tomb does not have the last word.
 The Easter story is a message of hope. It shows us that darkness will not always prevail, there will be a turning point, there will be light and renewal. Things will be different, yes. One does not emerge from a crisis unchanged. We have witnessed so many acts of that light during this crisis from the heroes on the front line, in good neighbours, in friends and family reaching out to one another. These rays of light remind us of Christ at work in this world, offering peace and love when everything seems hopeless. May we experience this deep peace Christ offers us in the Gospel today and may we carry that peace to others. (Jane Mellett –Intercom)
