THANK YOU TO
'NET MINISTRIES'

A huge thank you to all the young people from 'Net Ministries' who have been here in the Parish from Sunday 2nd to Thursday 6th. We have thoroughly enjoyed their company, their stories and the sharing so generously of their faith over their days here with us. We thank them for the wonderful presentation to the parents of our Confirmation children and for the inspiring and enjoyable retreats they provided for the children in 'Mary, Help of Christians' & St. John Bosco Schools. We wish them every blessing in all their future endeavours. May the Holy Spirit continue to inspire and guide them on their Faith Mission.

Thank you to the families who provided accommodation for the four nights. Your hospitality and kindness is greatly appreciated.

CELTIC ATHLETIC CLUB

This week we have Junior Athletes competing at the Leinster Schools Cross Country in Santry and we have Senior Athletes in Abbottstown at the AAI games. Training continues at usual times with details on our website.

THE GIFT OF EVERY LIFE FROM GOD

Knowing that each human life, even if weak & suffering, is always a splendid gift of God's goodness, as members of Christ's body, the family of the Church in the world, in each human life, we see the splendour of that 'yes', that 'amen' who is Christ himself.
