Navan Road Parish

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Dear Parents,

Congratulations on the birth of your child. The gift of new life is a precious and fragile gift entrusted to you to be nurtured and brought to maturity. The Christian Community on the Navan Road rejoices with you that your child is joining the family of the Church.

You have asked to have your child baptised. However, you must realise what is involved. You are undertaking the responsibility of raising your child in the practice of the faith. That means you will be teaching your child how to pray, by talking to him/her about God and Jesus and by showing your child that you believe also by putting what you say into practice. You will also introduce your child to the Parish Worshipping Community here or wherever you live. You do this by bringing your son/daughter to Mass on Sundays. If you have not been doing that, for whatever reason, this is an opportunity to start again.

IF YOU DO NOT BELIEVE WHAT CATHOLICS BELIEVE OR IF YOU FEEL THAT YOU CANNOT DO WHAT IS NECESSARY TO BRING YOUR CHILD UP AS A CATHOLIC PLEASE DELAY HAVING YOUR CHILD BAPTISED.

GODPARENTS: Your choice of Godparents is important. They are to give your child Christian example. They must be practicing Catholics must be over 16 years. *They must be male and female, if there are two Godparents.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS:

To personally complete the forms attached, and supply a Copy of Civil Birth Certificate. What you put on the application form must match what is on the Birth Certificate.

You will need a baptismal candle – this can be obtained from our Parish shop. The child should also wear a white robe or shawl.

Baptism Meeting

You are required to attend a Baptism meeting which will take place on the last Monday before the 1st Sunday of the month, unless it's a bank holiday.

Attendance at the pre-Baptismal meeting is obligatory. If at least one of the parents does not attend the meeting the baptism must be postponed until another month and after a meeting is attended.

An envelope will be provided for the Church Offering.
