LAY MINISTRY COLLECTION – MAY 14th & 15th

The Archdiocese of Dublin Lay Ministry Collection takes place on Saturday and Sunday, May 6th & 7th. The Lay

Ministry Collection will support the development of a variety of lay ministries, providing for more women and men to work alongside the priests and deacons. Our hope is that lay ministry will make a significant contribution to pastoral life into the future.

This Collection will replace the 2nd Collection (SHARE)

Prayer to Discover Your Vocation

Almighty God,
You have made me to know you,
To love you, and to serve you,
And thereby to find and fulfil myself.
I know that you are in all things
And that every path can lead me to you, But, of them all, there is one path especially By which you want me to come to you.
Since I will do what you want of me,
I pray you; send your Holy Spirit to me;
Into my mind to show me what you want of me;
Into my heart to give me the determination to do it,
And to do it with all my love, with all my mind,
And with all my strength, right to the end. Amen.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER 30TH APRIL 2023 –DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

THE GOOD SHEPHERD

Compassion and healing

Compassion is not learned without suffering. Unless we have suffered and wept, we really don't understand what compassion is, nor can we comfort someone who is suffering. Unless we have walked in darkness, we can't help wanderers to find their way. But if we have suffered we become pathfinders for others. And it is by reaching out to others that we ourselves are healed. Jesus bore the marks of our violent world on his body. Those wounds were the proof of his love. They were the mortal wounds the Good Shepherd picked up in caring for his sheep. The wounds of Jesus are a source of consolation, courage, and hope to us in our sufferings. By his wounds we are healed.

TÁ FAILTE ROMHAT!

We welcome our new Papal Nuncio Archbishop Luís Mariano Montemayor, who arrived in Dublin this week. We pray for him and wish him many blessings as he takes up his new ministry. The parishioners of Our lady Help of Christians look forward to meeting Archbishop Luís Mariano very soon.

LITTLE SISTERS OF THE POOR SYBIL HILL RAHEENY

Will hold a Church Gate Collection this weekend 29th/30th April. Please support the essential work of the Little Sisters Of The Poor. Thank you.

Congratulations to all the girls and boys who received the Sacrament of Confirmation this week.

We pray that the gifts of the Holy Spirit will enrich their faith as they grow into their teenage years.

COUNCIL*VERY URGENT; by 10th MAY, the public can submit to the latest Electoral Boundary Review on their preferred boundary options. NRCC will be making a submission as we did last time, when Navan Road area residents individually submitted the largest number of all areas. We will be asking for a restoration of Navan Road and Ashtown to a 4 seater DUBLIN CENTRAL constituency for the next General Election.At present we are represented at local level by our Dublin City Councillors (for Cabra/Glasnevin) and at National/Dáil level we are represented by 4 T.D.'s from Dublin West, Fingal. This makes it very difficult to receive proper attention for issues within our area, as our T.D.s, all in Fingal/Dublin West have to deal with multiple local authorities, whilst our Navan Road area is in Dublin Central, under each Dublin CityDevelopment Plan. Skreen Road alone is in an unusual situation, with its city side in one Constituency, and opposite side in another Constituency - confusing for many visiting public reps themselves. Having Navan Road/Ashtown back in Dublin Central would provide better alignment with local election wards - at presentCabra/Glasnevin Ward is split between Dublin Central and Dublin West. Geographically it makes more sense for our representatives to be in Dublin Central. see review at https://www.electoralcommission.ie/constituency-reviews.
Submissions should be addressed to An Coimisiún Toghcháin, Dublin Castle, Dublin 2 or by email to constituencyreview@electoralcommission.ie We cannot source a physical viewing for all those not on the internet, which disenfranchises them.
