DISCERNING THE CHURCH – JOHN HENRY NEWMAN AS GUIDE

“...It is interesting to consider John Henry Newman – now Saint John Henry Newman. In Newman we have a window on our own situation.

John Henry Newman was a person of profound faith. He “believed deeply in God and in Jesus, was morally very upright, of great asceticism and holiness of life.

Intellectually, however, he was very confused. [Within the Anglicanism of his day,] he did not know which Church really represented the Church established by Jesus.” Reading his spiritual autobiography – his famous Apologia, one discovers how much it cost him to arrive at a sense of what the Church truly was, or where the Church truly was. This is what the late Archbishop of Milan, Cardinal Carlo Maria Martini described as “the effort of grasping from among the different ways of thinking, the different arguments, the many theologies and philosophies, the right one.” I do not wish to oversimplify or reduce the complexity of Newman’s journey, but “at a certain point in his journey, reflecting carefully on the heresies of the 4th century, on how the Church had overcome Arianism and Donatism, [Newman] perceived the principle of unity and the centrality of Rome. [For Newman this was] an ‘illumination’ that changed his life” (see Cardinal Carlo Maria Martini, Incontro al Signore Risorto (2012), 90-91). In a time of change and turmoil, Newman worked out – for himself – what and where the Church was. He came to his own vision of the Church. In this time of change and turmoil, we have to work out – for ourselves – what and where the Church was. We – the clergy and engaged laity of this diocese – have to do the same. This is where God is calling us, and this is our responsibility as disciples of Christ: together, listening to each other and to those beyond comfort zone.

Is this not the heart of our Building Hope initiative?

ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

The people of the Archdiocese may join the Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes, as Associates, by being enrolled & by making a voluntary offering. The money collected will be devoted to defraying the expenses of the Sick Pilgrims Section. They will receive in return, as Associates, an enrolment leaflet outlining the prayers for Associates. The enrolment sheets with the names of associates will be placed at the Grotto during the Pilgrimage; September 7th-12th.

Mass will be offered for all the associate members.

If you would like to help by becoming an associate member please call to the Parish Office. There will be an opportunity to sign up after Masses also, in the coming weeks. Thank you.

SAINT ANTHONY OF PADUA
FEAST DAY 13th JUNE

Novena prayers will be said during all Masses up to and including the feast day when there will be the blessing of the lilies.

Prayer of Saint Anthony

Lord Jesus Christ may we sing your song of praise, rejoice only in you, live modestly, abandon our worries, and tell you all our needs.

We come to rest in your peace. Prepare in our hearts a dwelling, a foretaste of the heavenly Jerusalem, and stay with us always, Oblessed Saviour. Amen.

Prayer for Students

Saint Anthony, student of the Sacred Scriptures and of the ways of God, give to those who are engaged in study the discipline they need to learn those things which will further their human development and assist their path through life.

Through your intercession may all students come to know the gifts they have received from God and use them for the good of all. Amen

EXAMS

We Pray for all preparing for exams at present. If you wish to include a loved one in prayers for exams please write their name on the sheets of paper on the tables in the church.

Prayer Before An Exam

Dear Lord, as I take this exam, I thank you that my value is not based on my performance, but on your great love for me. Come into my heart so that we can walk through this time together. Help me, not only with this test, but the many tests of life that are sure to come my way. As I take this exam, bring back to my mind everything I studied and be gracious with what I have overlooked. Help me to remain focused and calm, confident in the facts and in my ability, and firm in the knowledge that no matter what happens today, you are there with me. Amen.

SAD LOCAL NEWS; Many of you may already know, Ashtown Post Office is to close its current location, possibly by end June. It is moving to a vacant unit in Rathborne, Pelletstown - beside Super Valu shop-time of move is dependent on refurbishment works. There is free underground car parking at Super Value, which can be used for minimum 2 hours. We told some people at the January Garda coffee morning in the Breffni, but were constrained from publishing elsewhere. Efforts were made to find another unit within our immediate area without success. INFORMATION; there is an option to change to Nephin Road Post Office, but may not be big enough to accommodate all of Ashtown's customers. For Pensioners etc., you must contact the Social Welfare to confirm you wish to change. Dept. H.Q. Phone 01 7043000. Online info on all forms of income support www.mywelfare.ie For other sections www.gov.ie/dsp. For those living Glendhu area, or lower end Kinvara there is a pathway through the playing fields at the rear of Martin Savage Park.
