PENTECOST SUNDAY 19TH MAY

REFLECTION by Michael Moore OMI

After Jesus' death, his followers hid themselves away in fear. They had lost all heart and hope. Then the strangest thing happens to them. The house is filled with the sound of a mighty wind and the sight of fire! These frightened and frail men and women are now transformed. Through the Holy Spirit, they are given new hope, new heart and new purpose. Their fear and silence is replaced by courage and conviction. They leave their hiding place and make their way into the streets and proclaim the good news of the resurrection. They become new people with a new message. At that very moment the missionary church was born.

We are no different than these ordinary men and women. Through our baptism and confirmation, each of us has been filled and anointed with the exact same Holy Spirit. Just as the first followers of Jesus proclaimed the Good News about him, we too are called to do likewise today. Just as these men and women were transformed into energetic and outspoken witnesses of Jesus, we too are called and invited to be changed by the Holy Spirit. There is nothing, mild or gentle about Pentecost. The Holy Spirit is powerful, life-changing and energetic. The Holy Spirit challenges us and calls us to change. As we celebrate the birth of the missionary church, we pray that each of us will be refreshed and renewed by the Holy Spirit. May we do what Pope Francis asks of each of us,
'Go out again and again, without hesitation without fear and proclaim this joy which is for all people...'

AN EXAM PRAYER

God stay close to me today. Guide my study & light my way. Ease my nerves and comfort me with peace and love so tenderly. May I remember the things I need, and understand all I study and read. May I strive to give my best and do myself justice in each test.

May the topics I know and like appear on the exam paper to lessen my fear. And during the moments I may feel stressed I'll try to remember the ways I'm blessed.
And if there are times that I feel at sea, help me to trust that you're here with me. Amen.

If you have any Dublin City Council issues i.e. broken pavements, potholes, broken street lights, litter etc. you can now report these issues online using the DCC phoning the Dublin City Council, Cabra Office at (01) 222 7400.

Many residents are taking advantage of the longer evenings and improving weather. We are appealing to dog owners to pick up after their pets. There are several infections that humans can pick up from dog faeces. Infants, young children younger than 5 years old and pregnant women have a greater chance of getting sick from these infections. Visually challenged people and wheelchair users also have problems dealing with dog faeces on pavements.

Bord Bia Bloom will be taking place again this year at Ashtown Castle in the Phoenix Park. It will run from Thursday 30th May to Monday 3rd June inclusive. More information as we get it.

MORNING ROSARY FROM MONDAY TO

FRIDAY AT 8.30AM- With the boys from
