TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 1ST SEPTEMBER 2024

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE CARE OF CREATION

Extract from Pope Francis' Message

(Full text is available on the Parish website-www.navanroadparish.com)

"Why is there so much evil in the world? Why so much injustice, so many fratricidal wars that kill children, destroy cities, pollute the environment and leave mother earth violated and devastated? Implicitly evoking the sin of Adam, Saint Paul states: "We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labour pains until now" (Rom 8:22). The moral struggles of Christians are linked to the "groaning" of creation, ever since the latter "was subjected to futility" (v. 20). The entire universe and every creature therein groans and yearns "impatiently" for its present condition to be overcome and its original state to be restored. Our liberation thus includes that of all other creatures who, in solidarity with the human condition, were placed under the yoke of slavery. Creation itself, like humanity, was enslaved, albeit through no fault of its own, and finds itself unable to fulfil the lasting meaning and purpose for which it was designed. It is subject to dissolution and death, aggravated by the human abuse of nature. At the same time, the salvation of humanity in Christ is a sure hope also for creation, for, "the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and obtain the glorious liberty of the children of God" (Rom 8:21). Consequently, thanks to Christ's redemption, it is possible to contemplate in hope the bond of solidarity between human beings and all other creatures....."

Memories of Mount Sackville Secondary School

In 2024/2025, Mount Sackville will proudly celebrate 160 years of education in Ireland. We plan to produce a publication marking this occasion. We invite past pupils and staff to share with us your stories, photographs, or any archival materials of your time here or your association with the school.

You may contribute in the following ways:
By email to memories@mountsackville.ie
By post to Mary Delaney, Mount Sackville Secondary, Chapelizod, Dublin 20.

By presenting the material at the school reception in a sealed envelope with your name and address to ensure you have the original material returned safely.

BUILDING HOPE WITH OPEN HEARTS

Pastoral Letter from Archbishop Dermot Farrell

JESUS' CONCERN IS FOR OUR HEARTS... he seeks to draw us close, heart-to-heart with him. 'Come to me, all you who labour and are heavy burdened, and I will give you rest.' (Mt 11:28). Jesus calls us to closeness with God, into intimacy with the One who gives us life, and invites us into the relationship that brings us into fullness of life (see Jn 10:10). It is in the depth of our hearts (see Mk 7:6) that we meet God as we respond to the mysteries of life, and are brought into silence and wonder. This relationship is the deeper – one might say, sacred – foundation of our life in the Church. With Christ – through him, and with him, and in him – we live out the gospel, we live out of the words and actions of Jesus that have been handed on to us. This relationship with Jesus is also the foundation of Building Hope, as we've been calling our journey of renewal in the Archdiocese of Dublin: as people of faith, 'encounter with the person of Jesus makes us who we are, and shapes what we do'. (Statement of Mission, February 2022) It is in this context that I speak to you today about the Building Hope Pastoral Strategic Planning. (Full text on the tables)
