TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 6TH OCTOBER 2024

POPE FRANCIS PRAYS FOR A ‘SHARED MISSION’

“All Christians are responsible for the mission of the Church.

All priests are not the bosses of the laity but their shepherds. Jesus has called both some and others – not some above others, nor some on one side and others on the other, but complementing each other on the path of synodality.

Of course, you might ask me, “What can I do – a bus driver, a peasant woman, or a fisherman?” What we all have to do is bear witness with our lives and take co-responsibility for the mission of the Church. The laity, the baptised, are in the Church, in their own home, and they have to take care of it just as we priests and the consecrated do, each contributing what we know best. We are co-responsible for the mission; we participate and live in the communion of the Church.

Let us pray that the Church continues to support by all means a synodal way of life under the sign of co-responsibility, promoting participation, communion, and the shared mission among priests, religious, and laity.”

From: Navan Road Community Council

Navan Road Community Council meeting next Tuesday, 8th October at 7.30pm in the 50P Room of the Parish Centre. We welcome new attendees/potential members and volunteers for the Committee - we are without a secretary for some time. The Community Council was formed in 1968 when the surrounding area was starting to grow. This was before Ashington, The Paddock, Kempton or Belleville were developed. NRCC was initially formed as an umbrella organisation to assist, or if requested, act for individuals, new residents associations, clubs etc.
We still await information from DCC on a date for the next Navan Road/
Pelletstown Police Forum.
