THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
16TH NOVEMBER 2025

Pope Francis prepares to eat lunch with his guests, about 1,300 people, in the Vatican audience hall Nov. 17, 2024, the World Day of the Poor. The Italian Red Cross sponsored and served the meal. (CNS photo/Pablo Esparza)

On Aug. 17, spending the day with the poor, Pope Leo XIV prayed that Catholics would make sure their parishes are welcoming of all people and would be "on fire" with God's love.

In his apostolic exhortation "Dilexi Te," promulgated Oct. 9, Pope Leo XIV has taken up the call of Pope Francis for Christians to see in the poor the very face of Christ — and to be a church that "walks poor with the poor" in order to authentically live out the Gospel.

The exhortation "to all Christians on love for the poor," explores the topic through the lens of Scripture, church teaching and the witness of the saints.

ACN IRELANDWho will speak up for Christians?The ACN WEEK OF WITNESS which runs from Sunday 16th Nov. to Sunday 23rd Nov. has become very important in raising awareness of persecuted Christians throughout the world.Wherever you go around the world and meet Christian Communities who suffer for their faith, the first thing they ask is 'pray for us' and this is usually followed by*'don't forget us'* As a papal charity at the service of Pope Leo, ACN is committed to ensuring that these communities are not forgotten. We are appealing to all faith communities to use the Week of Witness and Red Wednesday to show our brothers & sisters that we will speak up for them!From: Navan Road
